The Power of Prayer

Be not deceived God is not mocked for whatsoever a man soweth in his heart that shall he also reap ~ Galatians 6-7

There is a place in Portugal called Fatima. Here, over the centuries, tens of thousands of pilgrims have visited to experience healing in the form of what they call miracles. Fatima is famous for the visions people have seen of the Virgin Mary. Many healings of extra-ordinary note have been documented there.

Years ago, a very thorough study was conducted to ascertain why some people had been healed while experiencing the vision and others had not.

There was only one thing everyone who saw the visions and received a healing all had in common.

At the time they received their healing they were all praying for someone else.

Howard Wills (www.howardwills.com) is an accomplished exponent of prayer who regularly catalyzes seemingly miraculous health transformations in people.

He does it all by peace making through prayer. You can find his complete collection of prayers on line at the above link.

Also I have included in this package an audio Introduction by Howard into prayer and healing.

I shall not expand anymore here on this concept but instead recommend the works of Earth Scientist, Greg Braden, (check out The Isaiah Effect, The Lost Mode of Prayer and Beyond Zero Point, all available on audio).

The power of prayer is fact. What I am proposing, supported by the work of Braden and spoken in the words of Jesus, whatsoever a man soweth in his heart that shall he also reap, is that your way of being is your prayer.

Rest assured, the reality you perceive is the response to that prayer.

I looked around upon the world and saw that it was shadowed by sorrow and suffering. And I looked for the cause... I looked in books but could not find it. I looked within, and found there both the cause and the self-made nature of that cause. I looked again and deeper and found the remedy. I found one law, the law of love; one Life, the Life of adjustment to that Law; one Truth, the Truth of a conquered mind and a quiet and obedient heart. ~ James Russel
